This request is not for purposes of delay. Rather the parties are engaged in settlement negotiations and have been working diligently to reach an amicable resolution to this dispute. The parties have communicated about settlement as recently as December 9, 2013, December 23, 2013, and December 24, 2013, and they continue to work diligently to reach an amicable resolution to this dispute. Because of the holidays, however, the parties need additional time to finalize the few remaining terms. The parties have conducted the required discovery conference, and they have communicated on several occasions about this and related matters. Accordingly, the parties submit that good cause exists to grant an extension.

Finally, if the TTAB Interlocutory and/or Administrative Trademark Judge(s) need additional information to consider this stipulation, the parties respectfully request a joint conference to update the TTAB on the status and remaining issues of settlement.
